

Written Examination for "The Collection of Nasopharyngeal Specimens".

- 1) The Nasopharyngeal swabs are used for the detection of respiratory viruses such as RSV, Influenza virus A & B, Parainfluenza virus amongst others (i.e. COVID-19)?
 - a. True
 - b. False
- 2) The following are the essential pieces of equipment for collection of the specimen?
 - a. Gloves
 - b. Gown
 - c. Goggles and/or Face Shield
 - d. N-95 mask
 - e. All of the above
- 3) For the specimen collection to test for respiratory viruses you need a good sample of mucous?
 - a. True
 - b. False
- 4) Have the individual tilt his/her head back gently and this should be at 60 degrees?
 - a. True
 - b. False
- 5) During the collection process you insert the swab into the nostril straight upwards?
 - a. True
 - b. False
- 6) You can't cause tissue damage and bleeding if you force the procedure?
 - a. True
 - b. False
- 7) You always need to conduct proper hand hygiene prior to donning Personal Protective Equipment (PPE)?
 - a. True
 - b. False
- 8) When collecting the nasopharyngeal swab specimen, if possible, do the other nostril with the same swab?
 - a. True
 - b. False
- 9) Sample rejection can include improperly labeled specimens?
 - a. True
 - b. False
- 10) Corona Virus can be cured with the juice of a single lime?
 - a. True
 - b. False