

Rural Medical First Responder Skills Day

When: Friday May 20th 8am to 5pm

Where: Sierra City Volunteer Fire Sand Barn Station on Gold Lake Highway

1 mile from Basset's Station

19 miles South of Sierraville on HWY 49

16 miles North of Downieville on HWY 49

GPS 39.61082927769461, -120.60518212519837

Who should attend:

- Anybody responding to the scene who may be supporting medically trained personnel
- EMTs, AEMTs, Paramedics, NPs

Topics:

- ✓ Basic and Advanced airway management
- ✓ Iv/IO placement
- ✓ Drug administration
- ✓ High Performance CPR
- ✓ Bleeding control
- ✓ Triage
- ✓ Pediatric Stabilization
- ✓ Infection Control and PPE Use
- ✓ ICS Overview
- ✓ Student Suggested Topics

What to expect:

1. Bring your lunch
2. Lots of hands-on practice indoors and outdoors
3. Networking with fellow rural first responders
4. 8 Free CEs

Instructor:

John Hughes of emsces911.org

Reserve your spot by contacting:

LeTina Vanetti

lvanetti@sierracounty.ca.gov

530-993-6737

Class size is limited.